THE COMMON EUROPEAN FRAMEWORK

Adult courses and CEF levels

This chart shows what adult coursebook level you can expect to select to meet the level guidelines of the CEF.

Basic user

- A1 Use a Beginner course or an Elementary course. Elementary courses start in A1 and lead into A2.
- A2 Use an Elementary course.

Independent user

The B-band takes longer to complete than the other bands. This is why it is wider in the chart. Progression will depend on the individual student.

- B1 Start with a Pre-Intermediate course. Continue using an Intermediate course.
- B2 Use an Upper-Intermediate course plus exam-specific preparation if relevant.

Proficient user

- C1 Use an Advanced course plus exam-specific preparation if relevant.
- C2 Use exam-specific preparation if relevant.

Notes

- Strong students could attempt a PET-level exam by the end of a Pre-Intermediate course; the majority will complete an Intermediate course.
- Syllabuses overlap to provide smooth progression; you can expect more overlap in the intermediate band.
- The + levels described in the CEF document simply demonstrate a strong level within a level. This may equate to more language knowledge, or a greater ease in performance, e.g. high level of fluency, good grasp of strategies.

natural English

★ Shortlisted for the Ben Warren Prize

ELEMENTARY TO UPPER-INTERMEDIATE

Ruth Gairns and Stuart Redman

A modern, speaking-centred general English course that helps students use language naturally.

Students typically have gaps in their language knowledge and performance which inhibit their progress. The natural English syllabus is based on research into these language gaps and the course brings together current ideas in a stylish, principled, and easy-to-teach set of materials.

- The 'natural English' syllabus strand enables students to integrate natural language into their language framework.
- Students learn to use real language naturally, through thinking and rehearsal time, confidence-building practice, and task-centred speaking.
- The three-stage approach to listening plus regular tapescript analysis and integrated pronunciation exercises help students learn to be better listeners.
- Teacher's Book chapters cover teaching principles, techniques, and ideas, plus a selected bibliography.
- Puzzle Books for fun self-study or classroom warmers and fillers.

STARTER, ELEMENTARY, AND PRE-INTERMEDIATE

Peter Viney and Karen Viney

A pocket-sized, bright, friendly course that gives adults confidence.

The gentle pace and practical approach make this course ideal for less-confident learners. It breaks language down into short chunks, which are easier to remember, and also provides plenty of practice activities to build students' confidence and give a real sense of progress.
